Hermon School Department

Staff Assignments and Transfers

When vacancies occur, the superintendent shall give first consideration to the promotion of a present staff member. Such transfers shall be made on the basis of the following criteria:

1. Value of present contribution compared to probable contribution in new position;
2. Qualifications in comparison to those of other candidates, both for the position to be vacated and for the position to be filled;
3. Opportunity for professional growth and potential to grow professionally;
4. His/her desire regarding assignment or transfer;
5. Length of service in Hermon.
