

Code: IIB
Approved: 1/29/01

Hermon School Department

Minimum Enrollment for Hermon High School Classes

To determine the feasibility of offering an elective class at Hermon High School when the projected enrollment for such class is questionable, the principal shall consult with department heads, guidance counselors and the superintendent. After careful consideration of the academic level of the course, continuity of students' programs and best use of available/existing resources, the principal and superintendent will determine whether or not the course will be presented.